

2020 Online training programme

Week	Release date	Theme
1	Tues. 12th May	Introduction to NPMS and survey methodology
2	Tues. 19th May	Introduction to Native Pinewood and Juniper Scrub
3	Tues. 26th May	Data Entry and website training Incorporating historical data and introduction to the NPMS mobile App
3	Fri. 29th May	NPMS Data Surgery Book a convenient time slot through the day for 1-to-1 help submitting your historical data
4	Tues. 2nd June	Introduction to Broadleaved woodland
5	Tues. 9th June	Introduction to Heathland Habitats
6	Tues. 16th June	Introduction to Bog and Wet Heath
7	Tues. 23rd June	Introduction to NPMS and survey methodology
8	Tues. 30th June	Lowland Grassland Habitats Week 1 Incorporating Dry acid grassland and Dry heathland
9	Tues. 7th July	Lowland Grassland Habitats Week 2 Incorporating Neutral damp grassland and Neutral pasture and meadow
10	Tues. 14th July	Data Entry and website training Incorporating historical data and introduction to the NPMS mobile App
10	Fri. 17th July	NPMS Data Surgery Book a convenient time slot through the day for 1-to-1 help submitting your historical data
11	Tues. 21st July	Introduction to Marsh and Fen Habitats
12	Tues. 28th July and through the week	Regional virtual meets Opportunity to dial into an informal video chat with other volunteers in your area.
13	Tues. 4th August	Introduction to Upland grasslands
14	Tues. 11th August	Arable Field Margins
15	Tues. 18th August	The big NPMS quiz! A fun opportunity for participants to check in on their ID while collecting useful volunteer experience data for the scheme.
16	Tues. 25th August	Coastal habitats
17	Tues. 1st September	Introduction to Rock outcrops, cliffs and screes
18	Tues. 8th September	Freshwater Habitats

Materials will be made available for each theme on the NPMS online training page on each release date. Visit www.npms.org.uk/content/training-events for further details and to book on to any virtual meetings included. You need to be registered on the NPMS website in order to book.